

RULES FOR USE OF HUDSON LIBRARY & HISTORICAL SOCIETY STUDY ROOMS

1. The Reference Department shall be responsible for administering the use of study rooms on the second level of the library. The Children's & Young Adult Department shall be responsible for administering the use of study rooms on the first level of the library.
2. There shall be no reservations accepted more than one week in advance for the use of these rooms. The rooms shall be available in two-hour shifts with further availability if no other reservations exist.
3. These study rooms are available for individual quiet study, group study, tutoring and small meetings.
4. No selling of merchandise or profit making is permitted.
5. No food is permitted. Covered drinks are allowed.