In the event that the remaining Trustees choose not to elect a successor Trustee before the Annual Meeting immediately following the creation of a vacancy, the successor Trustee shall be elected by a majority of the Members present at such Annual Meeting for the remainder of the unexpired term. The successor Trustee elected by the Members may be the same Trustee who was elected by the Board.

ARTICLE II

- (B) If the Trustee sought to be removed is not present at such meeting of the Board, the President shall, within one week thereafter, notify such Trustee in writing of the adoption of such preliminary approval, and of the time and place when the final vote shall be taken thereon, and stating that such Trustee will be afforded a full opportunity to be heard on his or her behalf.
- (C) Such motion to remove a Trustee shall be finally voted upon at the next regular meeting of the Board and the motion to remove must receive the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of all remaining elected Trustees, after the Trustee sought to be removed has been afforded the opportunity to fully state his or her reasons in opposition thereto.

(C) Newly elected Trustees are sworn in at the end of the Annual Meeting.

(D) All candidates for Trustee positions must be present at the annual meeting unless there are extenuating circumstances that preclude attendance.

Section 3: MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

(A) Regular meetings. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on Monday in the fourth week of each month, unless the holding of such regular meeting or meetings shall be changed temporarily or permanently by vote of the Trustees at a preceding meeting. The President, with consensus of the Board of Trustees, may dispense with any regular meeting. Business that may be brought before the Board may be transacted at any regular meeting. The Secretary shall post agendas for each regular meeting of the Board to the library website for viewing by Trustees and the general public at least three (3) days in advance of such meeting. Notice of each regular meeting shall also be given by the Secretary by posting a notice of the meeting at the Library building and on the Library website at least three (3) days in advance of the meeting.

(B) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or by any three (3) Trustees. Notice of any such special meeting shall be given to each Trustee by the person or persons calling such meeting with at least three (3) days' prior notice. Such notice may be given by mail, telephone or electronic mail and shall state the time, place and purpose of such special meeting. Notice of the time, place and purpose of any special meeting shall also be given by the person or persons calling such meeting by directing the Secretary to post a notice of the meeting in the Library building and on the Library website at least three (3) days before the date of such meeting. The Secretary shall keep minutes of any special meeting of the Board. The Board shall consider only those items on the agenda for action at any such special meeting.

(C) Executive sessions. Executive Sessions are closed meetings of the Board of Trustees conducted for the sole purpose of consideration of any of the following matters:

(1) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a Library employee or official, or the investigation of charges or complaints against a Library employee, official, licensee, or regulated individual, unless the Library public employee, official, licensee, or regulated individual requests a public hearing. If the Board of Trustees holds an executive session pursuant to this Section (C)(1), the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state which one or more of the approved purposes listed in this Section (C)(1) are the purposes for which the executive session is to be held, but need not include the name of any person to be considered during the executive session.

(2) To consider the purchase of property for Library purposes, the sale of Library property at competitive bidding, or the sale or other disposition of unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use property, if premature disclosure of information would give an unfair competitive or bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest is adverse to the general public interest. No Trustee shall use this Section (C)(2) as a subterfuge for providing covert information to prospective buyers or sellers. A purchase or sale of Library property is void if the seller or buyer of the Library property has received covert information from a Trustee that has not been disclosed to the general public in sufficient time for other prospective buyers and sellers to prepare and submit offers. If the minutes of the Board of Trustees show that all meetings and deliberations of the Board of Trustees have been conducted in compliance with this Section (C)(2), any instrument executed by the Board of Trustees purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of any right, title, or interest in any Library property shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with this Section insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, lessees, or transferees of the property is concerned.

- (3) Conferences with an attorney for the Board of Trustees concerning disputes involving the Library that are the subject of pending or imminent court action.
- (4) Preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or bargaining sessions with Library employees concerning their compensation or other terms and conditions of their employment.
- (5) Matters required to be kept confidential by federal law or regulations or state statutes.
- (6) Details relative to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for the Library, if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of the Library.

To enter into executive session, a Trustee must make a motion to go into executive session and the reason for doing so that is seconded and adopted by a majority vote of the quorum of the Board of Trustees. Non-Trustees may not be present for executive session unless invited by the Board.

The minutes shall reflect that the majority of the quorum of the Board of Trustees voted to go into executive session and the reason for doing so. A resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting that results from deliberations in executive session is invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose specifically authorized in Section (C) and the executive session conducted in compliance with these Regulations and applicable Ohio law.

- (D) Emergency meetings. An emergency meeting is a type of special meeting that a public body convenes when a situation requires immediate official action. Rather than the 24-hours advance notice usually required, a public body scheduling an emergency meeting must immediately notify all media outlets that have specifically requested such notice of the time, place, and purpose of the emergency meeting. The purpose statement must comport with the specificity requirements discussed above.
- (E) Annual Organizational Meeting. An annual organizational meeting of the Board shall be held each year immediately following the Annual Meeting. At this meeting, the Board shall nominate and elect the President and Vice President. The Board shall also appoint the Executive Director, Fiscal Officer and Deputy Fiscal Officer at this meeting.
- (F) Location. Meetings of the Board shall take place at a location that is open to the public. Meetings will be held in the Library building unless another location is designated by a vote of the majority of the Trustees or, with respect to special meetings, a different location is given in the notice of such meeting.
- (G) Quorum and Transaction of Business. Except with respect to the filling of a vacancy on the Board, a majority of the elected Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of all business brought before a meeting, except as otherwise expressly provided in these Regulations.

Whenever less than a quorum is present at the time and place appointed for any meeting of the Board, a majority of those Trustees present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be present. The act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board.

(H) Meetings Open to Public. All regular and special meetings of the Board shall be open to the public. Advance notice of meeting time, locations and agendas will be posted on the library website.

(I) Minutes. The Secretary shall keep, for each regular and special Board meeting, minutes rendered with sufficient detail to permit the public to understand and appreciate the rationale behind the Board's decisions and that include the identification of speakers, the order and substance of their statements and a record of votes on all motions. The Secretary shall distribute to each Trustee minutes of the preceding regular or special meeting of the Board at least one (1) day before the next regular or special meeting. The Secretary shall promptly post on the Library website minutes of regular meetings and the Secretary shall make available to the public upon request minutes of special meetings. A Trustee desiring to have a communication recorded in the minutes of a meeting shall submit the communication in writing to the Secretary and it shall be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Board. Minutes shall be approved by the Board and signed by the President.

ARTICLE XI

CONDUCT OF TRUSTEES

Section 1: GENERAL DUTIES

Each Trustee shall represent the best interests of the Library. Trustees, in their fiduciary capacity, shall promote the highest level of Library service while observing ethical standards. Trustees shall avoid situations in which personal interests might be served or financial benefits gained at the expense of the Library. It is incumbent upon each Trustee to disqualify himself or herself immediately whenever the appearance of a conflict of interest exists. Trustees must distinguish clearly in their actions and statements between their personal philosophies and attitudes and those of the Library. A Trustee must keep confidential information confidential. Trustees must be prepared to support to the fullest the efforts of librarians in resisting censorship of library materials by groups or individuals. A Trustee shall perform the duties of a Trustee in good faith, in a manner the Trustee reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Library, and with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

Section 2: CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Trustees must avoid situations in which their personal interests conflict with the needs of the Library, particularly with respect to decisions involving financial transactions entered into by the Library. Trustees shall avoid any situation in which there may be an appearance of a conflict of interest and which might result in injury to the standing of the board or institution in the eyes of the community. A conflict of interest shall be defined as any situation in which the personal interests of a Trustee might be served or the financial benefit gained at the expense of Library users or at the expense of the Library. A direct conflict exists whenever there is a proposed transaction or arrangement in which a Trustee has any actual or potential involvement, interest, relationship or gain. An indirect conflict exists in the following situations: when any party involved in a transaction with the Library is an entity in which the Trustee has a material (no more than 5% equity interest) or financial interest; or if a Trustee has a business affiliation or family relationship with a party involved in a transaction with the Library. Should any Trustee perceive a direct or indirect conflict of interest, it must be brought to the attention of the Board immediately, and the Board shall examine the nature and extent of the potential conflict. Under no circumstances shall any Trustee participate in any decision in which the Trustee has a direct or indirect conflict of interest. Any resolution shall hold the Library's interest paramount, and shall maintain the highest level of integrity. The foregoing is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable federal or state laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and tax-exempt entities.

All trustees of the board are required to sign a copy of the Conflict of Interest form annually which is kept on file by the Secretary of the Board.
